FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
KATHY, MARY & SARAH
HJORTIETCH
6405 High Drive
Shawnee Mission, Kans. 66208

Dear Archie,

We are triplets, age 10 years old. For Christmas this year we received a surprising gift—a pet panther. Her name is Coleen. My aunt and uncle brought her back from a hunting trip, and we raised it from a baby. Coleen is very tame and tricky. She can chase a ball, and my six-year-old sister (unluckily for her!)

She is coal black and has green eyes like a cat. You may think it is unusual to have a pet panther that can do tricks, but you haven't heard the best yet! The only time she'll eat is in a chair, because when she was young we fed her in a chair and now she thinks it's the right way. But what we are most delighted about is that our wonderful unusual pet looks at the pictures in our Archie comics while we read them!

SECOND PRIZE — $2.00

DONALD R. MOODY
P.O. Box 63
Amesbury, Mass. 01913

Dear Archie,

One afternoon while riding in the country with Mom and Dad we drove into the barnyard of a deserted farm. "There are blueberries in those fields," Dad said. "I guess the owners won't mind if we pick a few." I followed my parents and helped them pick for awhile then I went back to the farm. It sure was deserted. No people in the house, no cows, no chickens, not even a cat or dog. It was so quiet I thought I'd sit in our car and play the radio. I turned on some music real loud and it wasn't long before I heard a thudding sound that seemed to come from the lane. Coming lickety-split toward the car was the biggest, whitest horse I've ever seen! At first I was scared. Then I realized it was the music that attracted him! He stuck his nose in the car window, backed up, whinnied, then started to dance, believe it or not! He enjoyed the music for he pranced around a few minutes before he finally trotted back down the lane the way he had come, probably to a green pasture below. Later my parents and I asked a neighboring farmer about the horse. "He's a trained circus horse named Arabia," the man told us. "He's getting too old to perform so his master is letting him spend the rest of his days roaming free in the fields. When Arabia heard your radio music it probably stirred up memories of good old days when he was in the circus!"

Misery is: when you hit a home run into your neighbor's picture window.

Misery is: when you read your favorite comic book and find out the last page is missing.

Misery is: when you have your best friend's big sister for a baby-sitter because your mother doesn't think you're old enough to take care of your brother.

Misery is: when you have a dental appointment on the day after Halloween.

Misery is: when your mother makes you give your teacher a valentine on Valentine's Day.

Misery is: when you show off by blowing a huge bubble with your gum, and it pops all over your face.

Misery is: when you get up at 6:30, get dressed, have breakfast and then you remember it's Saturday.

Dear Archie,

About three weeks ago I signed up for for my three month Karate course. It is very interesting. You learn the stances, blocks, etc. Karate is just not breaking boards like some people think. The first lesson made me very sore. You are ranked by the color of your belt. I am only twelve but some people take it when they are younger. Your uniform is called a gi. I hope other people will be able to take this fascinating Martial art. I hope to continue my lessons this school year.

FIFTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
GAIL NIEMIEC

Dear Archie,

Our neighborhood is buzzing with excitement, or should I say zooming with excitement? The reason being that we live near a motorcycle raceway, and because the kids here have what you could call a motorcycle craze. Boys and girls have mini-bikes, Hondas, or other motor bikes. Practically all the children on this street have one. Every day children are seen and heard racing throughout the fields. The motorcycle craze has really taken over this year. One only guesses what next year will be like.
